SPLIT WITH HOBBY SENDS GREGER OUT

Is Discharged Because of Alleged Insubordination; "He Failed to Carry Out My Orders," is Chairman's Explanation

WILLIAM GREGER, chief inspector of the territorial harbor board, was discharged this morning by W. R. Hobby, chairman, for alleged insubordination.

Trouble which had been brewing over some work between the two men reached a head on Saturday evening and resulted in the sending of the discharge by Hobby this morning.

Greger has been with the harbor board for the last three years, the latter half of which has been on the big job at Piers 8, 9 and 10. He was at work on Pier 10 today when he received word of the chairman's decision.

Neither Greger nor Hobby would discuss the matter to much extent today.

"It was simply a case of where Greger refused to obey orders from me," said Hobby, "a thing I have a right to expect in this department. I took time to consider the matter and finally decided to inform Greger his services would be required no longer."

"As far as ability and efficiency are concerned," says Greger, "the board has nothing against me. I have done my best at all times."

Greger's salary was $250 a month.
William D. Diamond, an engineer in the department of public works, has been named by Hobby to succeed him.
Greger came here at the special request of the board three years ago, he said today. He worked for a year and a half at Hilo before coming to the local pier job.

In his work here "Bill" Greger frequently aroused the ire of Ed Lord, contractor, with the result that Lord often complained of him at the harbor board meetings, declaring him unreasonable in his demands on the job. The board, however, stood by its inspector.

Some time ago Greger figured in a fight on the piers about the time work was beginning one morning. Following the thrashing out of the matter in the police court the harbor board held an investigation of its own, with the result that Greger was kept on the job.

PRISON YAWNS FOR THOSE WHO FAILED IN DUTY

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30.
Attorney General Gregory today issued orders for a general roundup of "slackers" who, by failing to comply with the registration law, now face criminal prosecution.

It is stated that many thousands failed to register in the different states, and the machinery of the law will be put in operation to bring them to time.

admiralty today announced that the British cruiser Ariadne has been submerged. No details were given.

Later reports to the admiralty state that 38 were killed by the explosion of the torpedo which sank the British cruiser Ariadne. The balance of the crew are reported saved.

GENERAL OTIS DIES WHILE HE EATS BREAKFAST

Famous Fighter and Veteran Editor Suddenly Stricken
By Heart Attack

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Commucation Service)
LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 30.— Gen. Harrison Gray Otis, well known newspaper publisher, died this morning from heart disease while sitting at the breakfast table. He has been at his desk daily for several weeks past, and death came suddenly.

General Harrison Gray Otis, himself a veteran of two wars, came of a long line of military and statesmanship ancestry. His grandfather was a soldier of note in the Revolutionary war and the Otis stock produced James Otis, Revolutionary patriot and orator, and the first Harrison Gray Otis, once noted as a senator from Massachusetts. Gen. Otis was 80 years of age, his birth having occurred on a Washington station, Ohio, farm, February 10, 1837.

Over five years of General Otis' life was spent as a volunteer soldier of the United States. In 1861, at the age of 24, he enlisted in the 12th Ohio Volunteers; was promoted through all grades to a captain in 1864. In that year a consolidation of regiments

DEATH PENALTY METED TO SLAVS DESERTING ARMY

cation Service)
LONDON, England, July 30.—It is reported here that Gen. Korniloff, Slavic commander of the Eastern European campaign, is imposing the full penalty on deserters, and is conducting executions wholesale in an endeavor to stop the disaffection which has all but crippled his army in the Southeast.

The Rumanians continue their victorious drive, and are advancing between Casin and Pretina valleys. They have captured six more villages.

UNIFORM ORDER GOES TO IRISH

Hawaii In Readiness For Draft Registration Enrollment Expected To Run 25,000 to 35,000

TWO WHOLESALE LIQUOR HOUSES MUST CLOSE UP

Peacock Co. and Ozaki Co.
Must Suspend for Month;
Misbranded Goods

For alleged misbranding of 1 Je Turk California brand cognac, the wholesale liquor firms of W. C. Peacock and Co., and the Ozaki Co. will be required to close their places of business on August 1. The Peacock company will be required to remain closed for one month and the Ozaki company for two weeks. The penalty was imposed by the Oahu Liquor License Commissioners at a meeting the latter part of June, when proof was submitted that the word type following the word cognac had been erased from the brandy labels in both the Peacock and the Ozaki establishments.

Recently a petition for a rehearing of the charges were filed with the wholesalers by the two companies, who maintained that the word cognac had become generic and that the word type or process were no longer required to distinguish the California brandy product from that of France.
At a special meeting of the license commissioners at noon today, a decision was rendered by Arthur Smith, acting attorney general, which sustained the previous ruling of the board. The decision rendered by the attorney general reads as follows:
"Use by W. C. Peacock of label reading '1 De Turk California brand cognac' without adding the word 'type' or the word 'process' is in violation of regulation 19, adopted under section three of the food and drugs act

ALL 'SLACKERS' TO BE ROUNDED UP BY SMIDDY

Eleven Deputies are Appointed Throughout Territory to Enforce Registration

U. S. Marshal Jerome J. Smiddy has completed his plans for rounding up those persons in the territory between the ages of 21 and 31 who fail to register tomorrow for military service.

Commissions have been mailed to 11 men in the territory giving them authority to act as special deputy United States marshals and, with this force behind him, Marshal Smiddy expects to carry out his part of the registration work with rapidity.

For obvious reasons the names of the special deputies will not be made public. They will be distributed in the territory as follows: Four on Oahu, three on Hawaii, two on Maui and two on Kauai. Authority to appoint special deputies to assist him in rounding up "slackers" was received by the marshal from Washington several weeks ago.

"I anticipate no trouble in carrying out my end of the work," the marshal said today. "Slackers, if there are any at all, will be very few, I believe, as registration day has been very well advertised throughout the islands, not only by the registration board, but through the newspapers, and I believe that every man coming within the age limit knows that it is his duty to register tomorrow, and knows the penalty for failure to register."

Thus far the marshal's office has received no information of the existence of conspiracies to discourage registration, or to prevent persons from registering. This fact, he says, speaks well for the territory.

ANOTHER DECISION IN SCOTT-PILPO CASE

Circuit Judge Kemp has handed down a decision ordering that $1210 alleged to have been collected by C.
K. Al from lands in North Kona be turned into court for disposition by a further order of the court. The decision arises in the old case of M.
F. Scott against E. N. Pilpo.

VETERANS OF OTHER DAYS, ARMY MEN OF PRESENT AND BOY SCOUTS WILL AID WORK

Governor Pinkham announced today that he will personally visit every booth in the city tomorrow morning to watch the progress of the registration.

Thirty members of the 2nd Infantry band, Fort Shafter, will cooperate with the Veterans of Foreign Wars of this territory to stir registration, playing patriotic airs as they ride through the streets.

Final wireless messages from the sheriffs of the outside islands, and statements by Sheriff Charles Rose of Honolulu, indicate that everything is in readiness for the big day.

Boy Scout tents are being erected today in the capitol grounds as headquarters for tomorrow. The capitol will be especially decorated.

Nearly every store in the city will close its doors for the occasion.

Hawaii's long looked for day is at hand!

At 7 o'clock tomorrow morning the doors of a hundred voting booths throughout the territory will swing open for one of the biggest national duties the territory has ever been called upon to meet—the registration for the selective draft.

Every detail has been attended to, according to those in charge, and the big task is expected to go through without a hitch, but every individual can help in this, it is pointed out.

Honolulu will awake tomorrow morning to find all efforts bent in one accord to make the city's registration for the day absolutely complete. is the belief of the registration committee.

There will be plenty to inspire every citizen tomorrow, be he of the age for registration or not. Flags will float from every staff in the city, patriotic mottoes will wave in the breeze, military bandmen will play, an old veterans will parade.

The booths too, forgetting their weather-worn coats of green, will blossom forth in gay bunting and flags.

Capt. Peter Kalani, leader of the Hawaiian band, will have as men at the capitol grounds for two hours tomorrow forenoon. The captain called on Executive Officer F. J.
Glen this morning and arranged final plans for the program.

Mr. Green, who is a distinguished organist as well as an organizer, has himself picked out the major portion of the selections—big, inspiring pieces from the operas and well known military and national airs.

Governor Pinkham today received

LATE NEWS AT A GLANCE

END OF KAWAIAHAO TROUBLE THOUGHT NEAR
That the factional fighting in the Kawaihahao church congregation is drawing rapidly to a close, was the opinion expressed today by Honolulu lans who are in close touch with the affairs of the church. A meeting of the warring factions was held last night at which, it is declared, harmony was the keynote. People in the church, especially officers of the Hawaiian board, expect a settlement of the differences soon.

prosecution, and who was later accused for perjury in connection with the evidence given while on the witness stand.

It was reported this afternoon that a number of well known residents of Honolulu are planning to petition the justices of the supreme court to appoint a person of the Hawaiian race to succeed A. W. Carter as a trustee of the Bishop estate. Mr. Carter several days ago petitioned the court to be allowed to resign.

which has been reserved to the supreme court by Circuit Judge Ashford.
The question arises in the matter of the estate of the late David P. Ka-

HAWAIIAN REVOLUTION 28 YEARS OLD TODAY Just 28 years ago today, in 1889, the Hawaiian revolution had its inception when Col. Robert W. Wilcox marched into the Palace grounds at 4 awaiting sailing orders, was today rammed by an incoming American vessel. In a sinking condition, the transport was hastily run ashore and

DANIELS SEEKS INCREASED PAY FOR NAVY MEN

cation Service)

Navy Secretary Daniels today addressed a communication to the house naval committee urging the passage of a bill for increased pay for the men of the navy.

He also asked that new ratings be established, and that the food allowance be increased from 30 cents to 40 cents per day per man now in active service.

The secretary also urged that compensation be given the enlisted personnel for property lost in the service of the country.

U. S. WOULD GIVE THE SOLDIERS FREE POSTAGE

A bill was introduced in the house today granting free postage to soldiers and marines now on foreign service.

PRESIDENT BACKS UP STAND FOR SINGLE FOOD DICTATOR

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30.—President Wilson today announced to the conferees now discussing the food control bill, that he is emphatically in favor of the lower house's proposal of a single head for control of the nation's supplies as the most effective.

The senate conferees have been holding out for a triple control, and a deadlock occurred, but it is now thought they will yield to the president's wish.

Agreement upon many points of the report which the conference committee will render to the two houses of congress on the conflicting bills which were passed by house and senate was reached yesterday.

Under the agreement the manufacture of distilled spirits for beverage purposes, except where they are to be used for the fortification of sweet wines, is specifically prohibited, and the importation of all distilled liquors is absolutely forbidden. These provisions are absolute and in no way discretionary with the President.

An important change has been made in the provision for discretionary prohibition of the manufacture of beer or wines. Under the house bill this discretion was conferred upon the President but the report proposes that it be given to army authorities and the President. It is now determined to leave to the discretion of army authorities and the President the stopping of brewing of beer and ale and the manufacture of wines.

All stocks of distilled liquors are to be commandeered. This provision affects not only the goods now in bond but stocks in the hands of dealers as well. Such commandeered stocks are to be used only for redistillation for use in hospitals by the military and in the manufacture of medicines and for the preservation of foodstuffs.

GIRL SPURNS ADVANCES, IS TWICE SHOT

Wounded Girl Tussles With Her Adopted Father and in Melee John Ena Makaloa Receives a Bullet Near Heart; Not Expected to Survive

A shot fired from the same gun with which he had already shot his daughter twice, probably fatally wounded John Ena Makaloa, a partially blind Hawaiian, this morning in his home on Kalia road. The girl, Lucy Makaloa, said to be the adopted daughter of the victim, was shot through the shoulder and in the neck, but will recover. Both have been removed to the Queen's hospital.

After having obtained a revolver from a source unknown to the girl, Makaloa crossed through the house and to the girl, who was lying on a bed, according to the story of the girl. He fired two shots at her. A tussle then followed during the course of which Makaloa received a shot which passed near to his heart.

Domestic troubles have been frequent in the home of John Makaloa and his daughter, and the shooting affair this morning came as a climax to advances of the father which have evidently led the girl to look to the police for protection before.

Threw Her on Floor

Following his advances upon her she lay on her bed, the girl struggled to get away and he threw her onto the floor. He then fired two shots at her, one of which went into her neck and the other into her shoulder.
Being almost blind, he could not see where he was shooting.

The girl then jumped up and in the struggle to prevent him from shooting her again the revolver went off

SAYS ASQUITH'S BELGIAN INQUIRY IS BUT RHETORIC

cation Service)

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, July 30.— The Lokal Anzeiger, a German newspaper, in an editorial declares that "Asquith's inquiry if we shall restore Belgium to full freedom is only a rhetorical question. With the exception of a handful of dreamers, none thinks of handing Belgium over to England and France."

The Cologne Volks Zeitung, criticizing Asquith's speech in reply to Michaelis' address in the reichstag, declares the retention of Belgium and the annexation of eastern frontiers is necessary.
